Special Issue

I've been seeing a lot of people construing this as hate. It's not hate, but yes, it's anger. We're angry at the way white people are made to feel we owe every other race and culture for all the injustices that have occurred over the centuries. We're angry that all the other races can stand up together and be proud with out being called prejudice and haters but us. When we get out there and speak, you will not hear any hate from us. We want equal rights for all, special rights for none! The truth is, if we sent a boat over there today, offered to take care of them, providing food and shelter in exchange for work, there wouldn't be enough room on that boat! The people are over populating, dieing in record numbers from AIDS, malnutrition, water born diseases and their own people won't help them. There are many rich parts of Africa that are letting this happen to their own people. While we send missionaries over there to teach them how to farm their land, dig wells so they will have clean water, give them health care. (No, I'm not saying the missionaries are solely white, they are made up of many)

Point being that if the people had not been brought here, they would not have had the opportunities they have today. And the way I personally look at it, we do not owe them anything else.

US Slave Reparations, a Sincere Approach

As I am sure you are aware, many American Black Leaders have solicited the government for reparations or "pay backs" due to the treatment of a few black people during the era of legalized slavery. They feel this "pay back" is due to all black Africans and Hybrid blacks even if they can not trace their ancestry back to this era.

Being compassionate European Americans, we have given this issue some thought and perhaps legalized slavery was wrong. After many hours of research and consideration, the Traditional Christian Knights of the Ku Klux Klan would like to offer an apology to all African Americans:

- We apologize for giving you doctors and free medical care, as a result you have been able to survive plagues and catastrophes while multiplying in great numbers.
- We apologize for teaching you to read and write and for building thousands of public schools which you have vandalized and destroyed.
- We apologize for teaching you the English language which has opened you to the entire world of European thought, culture and commerce.
- We apologize for developing farms which feed the bulk of you so that you will not starve.
- We apologize for providing you with warm clothing made of fabric to replace your animal skins and grass.

We apologize for erecting buildings and factories which give you the opportunity for employment even above our own people thanks to Affirmative Action.

We apologize for building roads between cities which you use for transportation.

We apologize for taking minerals from the earth which you neither used, wanted or even knew existed.

We apologize for paying high taxation for your welfare while spending less on ourselves.

We apologize for giving you the freedom that our Forefathers died for and for devoting our entire lives to making this a better place for you.

For all of these sins and mistreatment of your people, we humbly apologize. If you will only accept this apology we will be more than happy to take back all of the above evil and return you to the shores of your African homeland. Again, we are VERY, VERY, sorry

The Lighting of the Cross

We have added the fire to signify that "Christ is the light of the world." As light drives away the darkness and gloom, so a knowledge of the truth dispels ignorance and superstition. As fire purifies gold, silver and precious stones, but destroys the dross, wood, hay, and stubble; so by the fire of Calvary's cross we mean to purify and cleanse our virtues by burning out our vices with the fire of his sword. Who can look upon this sublime symbol, or sit in its sacred, holy light without being inspired with a holy desire and determination to be a better man? "BY THIS SIGN WE CONQUER."
